

Crime Log

• Disturbing Individual (Priority 2)—1:10 a.m.—Pacific Coast Highway—The caller reported a man yelling in front of a business. Police contacted the man. He said he was looking for a specific man. He gave the police a name. The officer advised him there were no males by that name in the area. The man agreed to leave. The officer determined he was not a threat to himself or to others, nor was he under the influence of drugs.

• Disturbing Individual (Priority 2)—1:20 p.m.— Pacific Coast Highway—A woman was trying to walk through the pharmacy drive-thru. She was asked to come inside, but refused to do so. As of 1:21 p.m., she had moved to the sidewalk area but was still causing a disturbance. Police apparently counseled her.

• Disturbing Juveniles (Priority 3)—1:23 p.m.—Almond Avenue (College Park East)—The caller said four boys were digging with a shovel near the sound wall. Police apparently advised/warned/counseled them against doing that.

• Grand Theft Report (Priority 3)—3:05 p.m.—12th Street—The caller ordered a computer from Best Buy. The box arrived. The package appeared to have been altered and the caller found it was empty. UPS delivered. Report taken.

SUNDAY, MARCH 29

• Patrol Check (Priority 3)—3:42 p.m.—First Street—A patrol officer observed the cones at the entrance to the First Street beach parking lot pulled to one side and knocked down. The officer didn't see any cars. The cones blocking the parking lot entrance were replaced.

• Patrol Check (Priority 3)—3:57 p.m.—Ocean Avenue—A patrol officer found two occupied cars. The registered owners were advised of violating the posted closure signage and driving through the exit. Both cars left.

• Patrol Check (Priority 3)—4:33 p.m.—Main Street—The caller said individuals sitting in their cars and drinking alcohol on the sidewalks as they waited for their to-go orders in front of two businesses, the names of which were apparently blacked out in the log.

• Municipal Code Complaint (Priority 3)—6:27 p.m.—10th Street and Seal Way (Old Town)—The caller reported a family on the beach near the 10th Street lot with a dog. They were apparently advised/warned/counseled against walking a dog on the beach (which was prohibited when the beaches were open to the public).

tion, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be made in an "AS IS" condition, but without covenant or warranty, expressed or implied, regarding title, possession, or encumbrances, to pay the remaining principal sum of the note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust, with interest thereon, as provided in said note(s), advances, if any, under the terms of the Deed of Trust, estimated fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust, to-wit: $111,366.53 (Estimated). Accrued interest and additional advances, if any, will increase this figure prior to sale. It is possible that at the time of sale the opening bid may be less than the total indebtedness due. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call, 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site, www.nationwideposting.com, for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, T.S.# 9462-5762. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse.
