resentative to administer the estate of the decedent. THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The WILL and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 02/10/21 at 10:30AM in Dept. C06 located at 700 CIVIC CENTER DRIVE WEST, SANTA ANA, CA 92701 fore the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Lisa Pahl named Hopkinson Elementary 'Hero of the Heart'

— all expert guidance to ensure that our schools safely provide in-person instruction and meet the diverse needs of our students," he added.
 The superintendent said K-8 schools have remained open.
 Pulver said all LAHS students will resume hybrid, in-person instruction at the start of second semester on Monday, February 1, 2021. Our elementary and middle schools will continue in the hybrid instructional format.
 "This is an extraordinary community of students, teachers, support staff, administrators and families who have worked together to ensure that our students' educational needs are met at the highest level. We should all take pride in what we are accomplishing," said Pulver.
 "On behalf of our Board of Trustees and the entire Los Alamitos USD family, we want to extend heartfelt thanks to each of you for your patience, understanding, support, determination, and grit you have demonstrated in working as our partners through the COVID-19 pandemic," he added.
 Meanwhile, Gov. Gavin Newsom, citing the surge in Southern California, had announced on Monday that the stay-at-home order, with all of its conditions, would remain in place until further notice.

COURTESY LOS ALAMITOS UNIFIED
 Saying she had a "heart of gold, Hopkinson Elementary Principal Evelyn Garcia named long time volunteer Lisa Pahl as it's "Hero of the Heart" for 2020.
 The ceremony was held online but during the meeting of the Los Alamitos Unified School District Board meeting Tuesday.
 "Mrs. Lisa Paul is really a true hero of the heart," said Garcia. "She works tirelessly to provide extraordinary experiences to all Huskies and is always willing to lend a helping hand with no expectation but for the sheer joy of giving," said Garcia.
 "She pours her heart into Hopkinson," said Garcia, speaking of Pahl's efforts at the Rossmoor Elementary School.
 The award was a bittersweet as Garcia said Pahl and her family were moving to Nashville, Tenn.
 "We will miss Los Alamitos," Pahl told the board via an online connection. "It's hard to sit back and listen" to all the tributes, said Pahl, "when you feel unworthy of it."
 Garcia said Pahl has organized book fairs, carnivals, and many other events. Moreover, Pahl served in many capacities, including President of the Hopkinson Parent Teacher Association (PTA) for six years.
 Garcia said honoring Pahl was "bittersweet" because Lisa and her family "are beginning a new journey together as they will be moving to Tennessee in the spring.
 Nevertheless, "though she will no longer be physically active on campus she leaves an important mark in the history of our school."

camera at their home to address Garcia and the board. (Because of the lockdown, the public is not allowed to be in the boardroom for meeting, so all external interaction is virtual).
 First of all, Pahl confirmed the family is moving to Nashville and said "we will miss Los Alamitos."
 Pahl said "from the moment I was pregnant... I wanted to be involved in their school." Pahl has been active at both Hopkinson and McAuliffe. She quit her consulting practice to begin her volunteer work.
 "I just never realized what extent that would be," she said, adding "I don't think I've ever worked harder than I do now."
 Nevertheless, she said "I don't think I've been so fulfilled by being able to spend their most important elementary school years with them on campus and to see what it means to volunteer," she said.

 "Thank you so much for this award, thank you to the board and thank you everyone. I am truly honored."
 Supt. Dr. Andrew Pulver said while the board generally gives the recipient a standing ovation so "we are still trying to do that for you as the board stood up and clapped towards the screen."
 "We are so thrilled to have such amazing parents and members of the community," he said. "We really are a village here to provide extraordinary opportunities for our students."
 "We could not do that without you and certainly want to thank you for all those years of service," said Pulver. "Your legacy will outlive your presence in Rossmoor," he added.
 "You're going to be deeply missed," said Board President Marlys Davidson, "I just know that it is parents like you that provide support and leadership with the creativity and ability to bring people together."
 "You've made a mark in Los Alamitos saying we will not forget you," said Board member Meg Cutuli.
